The International Day for the Preservation of Ozone Layer also known as World Ozone Day was celebrated on 16th September 2021 in Dr. Y.S. Parmar Govt. P.G. College Nahan by the Department of Chemistry under "CHEMICOS" in collaboration with Department of Geography.

The event to spread awareness about saving the ozone layer was organized in two sessions. In the first two-hour session the students from all streams participated in the slogan writing, poster making and painting competitions on the theme "Save the Ozone Layer". Twenty-nine participants emphasized the importance of ozone in protecting the earth from harmful radiations through their slogans, paintings and posters. The entries in different categories were judged by Professor Anju Aggarwal (Department of Chemistry), Professor Sulaxana (Department of Zoology) and Dr. Vikas Guleria (Department of Botany).

The second session was presided over by Dr. Dinesh Bharadwaj, Principal Dr. Y.S. Parmar Govt. P.G. College Nahan. Dr Saloni Sood from Department of Chemistry started the function with a warm welcome of the Chief Guest, Professors from different departments and students. This was followed by formal welcome of the Chief Guest Dr. Dinesh Bharadwaj by Professor Anju Aggarwal and Dr. Ved Prakash. Dr Anju Aggarwal in her inaugural speech welcomed the Chief Guest and introduced the topic "Save Ozone Layer" to the students. After this Ms. Amita Joshi from Department of Chemistry gave a presentation on the topic "Ozone and Ozone Layer". She explained good and bad ozone, functions of ozone layer, causes of ozone layer depletion and ways to protect the ozone layer. Mementoes were given to the prize winners by Chief Guest. Pooja Chauhan, Pooja Devi and Shivani stood first, second and third respectively in the slogan writing competition. Tanya Sharma, Shruti and Priya Sharma bagged first, second and third position in the painting/poster competition.
