Dr. Y.S. Parmar Govt. P.G. College Nahan, Distt. Sirmour (H.P.) Department of Zoology

Report

One day visit to Museum of Zoology and Anthropology at Panjab University, Chandigarh.

Introduction:

On the 18th November, 2022, a visit was made to the Museum of Zoology and Anthropology at Panjab University, Chandigarh. Students were briefed about the visit by worthy Principal Dr. Veena Rathore Dr. Y.S. Parmar Govt. P.G. College Nahan. About 40-45 students were accompanied by Dr. Vikas Guleria, Dr. Vineet Kumar and Dr. Saloni Sood. The museum is located within the university campus and showcases a vast collection of specimens and artifacts related to zoology and anthropology. The visit was aimed at gaining a deeper understanding of the diversity of animal and human life and their interrelationships.

Zoology Section: The first section we visited was the zoology section. The museum showcased a vast collection of specimens of animals from all over the world. The specimens included preserved specimens of fish, reptiles, amphibians, and mammals. The museum also had a display of skeletons and models of different animals that provided a deeper understanding of their anatomy and physiology.

Anthropology Section: The second section we visited was the anthropology section. The museum showcased a vast collection of artifacts and exhibits related to the cultural and social evolution of human beings. The exhibits included tools, weapons, and clothing used by early humans, as well as a display of the various cultural practices and traditions of different communities.

Interactive Exhibits: The museum also had several interactive exhibits that engaged the visitors and provided them with a hands-on learning experience. One such exhibit was the virtual reality experience, which allowed visitors to explore the habitats of different animals and learn about their behavior and survival techniques. Another interactive exhibit was the touch and feel exhibit, which allowed visitors to touch and feel the various specimens and artifacts on display.

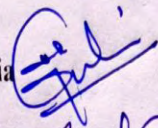

Educational Value: The visit to the Museum of Zoology and Anthropology at Panjab University, Chandigarh was highly educational and informative. The vast collection of specimens and artifacts provided visitors with a deeper understanding of the diversity of animal and human life and their interrelationships. The interactive exhibits engaged visitors and provided them with a hands-on learning experience. The museum also provided a platform for research and study, and the knowledgeable staffs were available to answer any questions and provide further insights.

Conclusion: In conclusion, the visit to the Museum of Zoology and Anthropology at Panjab University, Chandigarh was a success. The museum provided a unique learning experience that enabled visitors to gain a deeper understanding of the diversity of animal and human life and their interrelationships. The interactive exhibits engaged visitors and provided them with a hands-on learning experience, while the knowledgeable staffs were available to answer any questions and provide further insights. The museum is a valuable resource for research and study and is highly recommended for anyone interested in zoology and anthropology.

Introduction:

On the 27th of March 2023, a workshop on first aid was organized from Dr. Y.S. Parmar Govt. P.G. College Nahan and conducted at the local Mata Padmawati College of Nursing, Nahan Distt. Sirmour (H.P.). Students were briefed about the workshop by worthy Principal Dr. Veena Rathore Dr. Y.S. Parmar Govt. P.G. College Nahan. About 50 students participated in the workshop and accompanied by Dr. Vineet Kumar and Dr. Zafar Ali. The workshop was aimed at educating participants on various emergency medical procedures such as CPR, Seizure, Poisoning, Snake bite, Dog bite, Unconsciousness, Spinal cord injury, Choking, Drowning, and Burn. The participants consisted of students, community members, and medical professionals.

CPR: The workshop started with a demonstration and practical training on Cardio Pulmonary Resuscitation (CPR). The instructor demonstrated how to perform chest compressions and rescue breathing on a mannequin. The participants also had the opportunity to practice these techniques, and the instructor provided individual feedback.

Seizure: The next session focused on how to manage a seizure. The instructor provided information on the types of seizures and how to recognize the signs of a seizure. Participants learned how to protect the individual during a seizure and what to do after the seizure has ended.

Poisoning: The workshop also covered how to manage cases of poisoning. The instructor provided information on the common causes of poisoning and how to identify the signs and symptoms of poisoning. Participants learned how to respond in case of poisoning and how to administer first aid before seeking medical attention.

Snake Bite: The participants also learned how to manage a snake bite. The instructor provided information on the different types of snakes and how to recognize the signs of a snake bite. The participants learned how to administer first aid and how to transport the victim to a medical facility.

Dog Bite: The workshop also focused on how to manage a dog bite. The instructor provided information on the common causes of dog bites and how to recognize the signs of a dog bite. Participants learned how to clean the wound and administer first aid.

Unconsciousness: The participants also learned how to manage cases of unconsciousness. The instructor provided information on the common causes of unconsciousness and how to recognize the signs of unconsciousness. Participants learned how to administer first aid and how to transport the victim to a medical facility.

Spinal Cord Injury: The workshop also covered how to manage a spinal cord injury. The instructor provided information on the common causes of spinal cord injury and how to recognize the signs of a spinal cord injury. Participants learned how to administer first aid and how to transport the victim to a medical facility.

Choking: The workshop also focused on how to manage choking. The instructor provided information on the common causes of choking and how to recognize the signs of choking. Participants learned how to administer first aid and how to transport the victim to a medical facility.

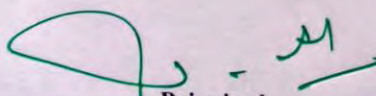

Drowning: The participants also learned how to manage cases of drowning. The instructor provided information on the common causes of drowning and how to recognize the signs of drowning. Participants learned how to administer first aid and how to transport the victim to a medical facility.

Burn: The workshop also covered how to manage a burn. The instructor provided information on the common causes of burns and how to recognize the signs of a burn. Participants learned how to administer first aid and how to transport the victim to a medical facility.

Conclusion: In conclusion, the workshop on first aid was a success. Participants gained valuable knowledge and practical skills that will enable them to respond appropriately in an emergency. The workshop also highlighted the importance of seeking medical attention after administering first aid. Overall, the workshop was informative, interactive, and engaging, and the participants expressed their appreciation for the opportunity to learn these critical life-saving skills.

Cleanliness Campaign (Under Swachh Bharat Abhiyan 2.0) in Pajhota Region

Venue:-GC Pajhota

Following the district-level competitions organized by NYK, the NSS unit of Dr. Y.S. Parmar Government P.G. College, Nahan, in collaboration with NYK Nahan, undertook a cleanliness campaign as part of Swachh Bharat Abhiyan 2.0 in the Pajhota region, particularly in the villages of Patteepateel and Jalogg. The campaign aimed to promote cleanliness and raise awareness among the villagers about the importance of cleanliness.

The NSS volunteers actively participated in cleaning activities, including waste collection, segregation, and disposal. They also engaged with the villagers to educate them about the importance of maintaining cleanliness for their health and well-being. Additionally, awareness sessions were conducted to highlight the adverse effects of littering and the benefits of a clean environment.

The collaborative effort of NSS volunteers and NYK played a significant role in making the cleanliness campaign successful. The impact of the campaign was visible as the villagers actively participated and pledged to maintain cleanliness in their surroundings. This initiative not only contributed to the cleanliness drive but also fostered a sense of responsibility towards the environment among the local communities.

This initiative underscores the commitment of NSS towards community service and environmental conservation, promoting the ideals of cleanliness and hygiene for a healthier and sustainable future.
