ABOUT NAHAN

This beautiful city situated on a hill top in the Shiwalik hills was founded by Raja Karam Prakash in 1621 AD. This city is known for its traditional charm with sinuous roads, cobbled streets and large array of Taals (water ponds). Nahan, the capital of erstwhile princely state of Sirmour, nestles in the last out posts of the Himalayan ranges at an altitude of 932m, offering panoramic views of the expansive plains below and of majestic mountain top on the side. This fantastic city is mostly used as a base for visits to the surrounding areas such as Renuka Lake, Paonta Sahib, Trilokpur and Suketi Fossil Park. This place is approachable from many directions by road: From Dehradun (90 kms.) via Paonta Sahib, from Ambala (67 kms) and Chandigarh (87 kms) via Kala-Amb and from Shimla (135 kms) via Sarahan making it a centrally located town of the region.

ABOUT Dr. Y.S .PARMAR GOVT. P.G. COLLEGE NAHAN

In 1954, Guru Ram Rai Trust established a Degree College at Nahan started in Amar Boarding House. The College was taken over by Himachal Pradesh Education Department in June 1963 as a constituent of Punjab University at the initiative of Dr. Y.S. Parmar, the first Chief Minister of Himachal Pradesh. The College has accomplished 56 years of spreading knowledge and education with a motto 'Asto Ma Sadgamyā' fulfilling the requirements of the students of not only Nahan town but also of the very remote and far flung areas of the district and adjoining neighbouring states too. The college is playing the pivotal role in disseminating quality education to the youth and to shape their future by inculcating in them the ethos of tradition and culture. The college is affiliated to H.P. University, Shimla and is known for its glorious record of excellence and notable achievements in academics, sports, cultural and other fields.
